

hyperlocal tourist information for clever hotel websites

YOUR 24-HOUR DIGITAL TOURIST BOARD

Visitr is a clever and innovative new way of adding a whole host of local tourist information into your website that your guests will love and appreciate.

Visitr can be added to any hotel website - whether small boutique guesthouses, country hotels, or national hotel chains - to provide a huge range of local tourist and travel information for your guests, integrated seamlessly by adding just a few lines of code to your site.

It works for your guests even before they arrive at your hotel, and will be enjoyed and used time and time again - by your guests AND staff.

Dozens of tourist information channels can be added within minutes, transforming your website into powerhouses of incredibly helpful local information for your guests to refer to time and time again.

Content channels include events, attractions, travel reports, cinemas, places of interest, weather, transport options, emergency information and much more. In fact, everything needed to ensure your guests have all the information they need to enjoy their stay at your hotel.

A host of benefits for your hotel

- Increased loyalty & guest satisfaction ratings
- Provides a suite of hyperlocal tourist information
- Works on all platforms (PC/tablet/smartphones)
- 5 minute setup
- Fully customisable
- Environmentally friendly alternative to brochures
- Reduces marketing spend and staffing costs
- Seamless integration

Visitr automatically works seamlessly on all platforms, allowing guests to browse local information through your hotel website, on smartphones, tablets or desktop PCs.

Whether your guests are sat at home researching which hotel to book, sitting in their hotel room wondering where to visit, or out and about, they will be able to refer back to your hotel website to plan and enjoy their stay 24 hours a day.

Visitr can be fully configured so YOU are in control, allowing you to show what YOU want to appear. Once it's been added to your hotel website, you can leave it, safe in the knowledge that we will keep it up-to-date.

Everyone knows that when it comes to internet marketing, "Content is King", so you'll also be delighted that it's SEO friendly, meaning that it can help your website rank higher in the search engines by providing your website with a whole host of new, engaging content and features.
